The Applicant agrees to the following conditions:

Requests to publish/display MOSTHistory materials are to be made for each edition in writing. Citation of MOSTHistory as source is required for all public displays, exhibits, or publications, a copy of which shall be donated to MOSTHistory. Photographic documentation, showing proper citation, is acceptable for public displays or exhibits. Permission to reproduce is granted only to the extent of proprietary rights held. No image reproduction, other than for publicity, promotion, and advertising referenced above, may be done without prior notification to MOSTHistory. "Image reproduction" includes posting the image to a website that allows the company and its users to reproduce, modify, use, distribute, adapt, or publicly display the image. Certain works, photographs, or documents may be protected by copyright regardless of physical ownership. Responsibility for ascertaining reservations of copyrights and for obtaining necessary permissions remains with the applicant.
